

Nursing and Midwifery Board of Australia Registration Migration Matrix – Nurses and midwives Western Australia

Type of practitioner	Item No	Type of registration under State/Territory law (transition from)	Type of registration under National Law (transition to)
Registered nurses	1	Persons granted 'registration' as a 'registered nurse' under s.27 of the Nurses and Midwives Act 2006 (WA)	General registration as a 'registered nurse' on the Register of Nurses, in Division 1 Registered nurses, under section 52 of the National Law NOTE: Registration type conditions continue to apply, for example practice restricted to mental health, paediatric, mental retardation
	2	Persons granted 'provisional registration' as an 'registered nurse' under s.29 of the Nurses and Midwives Act 2006 (WA) – (for a period of up to 3 months)	Limited registration (public interest) as a 'registered nurse', on the Register of Nurses in Division 1 Registered nurses, under section 68 of the National Law
	3	Persons granted 'conditional registration' as a 'registered nurse' under s.30(1)(b)(ii) of the Nurses and Midwives Act 2006 (WA) to teach midwifery in a clinical setting	Limited registration (teaching or research) as a 'registered nurse', on the Register of Nurses in Division 1 Registered nurses, under section 69 of the National Law
	4	Persons granted 'conditional registration' as a 'registered nurse' under s.30(1)(b)(iii) of the Nurses and Midwives Act 2006 (WA) to undertake nursing duties of limited duration	Limited registration (public interest) as a 'registered nurse', on the Register of Nurses in Division 1 Registered nurses, under section 68 of the National Law
	5	Persons granted 'registration as a specialist' under s.31(1) of the Nurses and Midwives Act 2006 (WA) , in the specialty of 'mental health nursing' (a prescribed specialty under Regulation 5 of the Nurses and Midwives Regulations 2007 (WA))	Base registration (whichever applies under item 176 or 179) as a 'registered nurse', on the Register of Nurses in Division 1 Registered nurses (any conditions transitioned verbatim) NOTE: There are no approved specialties in nursing
Midwives	6	Persons granted 'registration' as a 'midwife' under s.27 of the Nurses and Midwives Act 2006 (WA)	General registration as a 'midwife', on the Register of Midwives, under section 52 of the National Law

Type of practitioner	Item No	Type of registration under State/Territory law (transition from)	Type of registration under National Law (transition to)
	7	Persons granted 'provisional registration' as a 'midwife' under s.29 of the Nurses and Midwives Act 2006 (WA) – (for a period of up to 3 months)	Limited registration (public interest) as a 'midwife', on the Register of Midwives, under section 68 of the National Law
	8	Persons granted 'conditional registration' as a 'midwife' under s.30(1)(b)(ii) of the Nurses and Midwives Act 2006 (WA) to teach midwifery in a clinical setting	Limited registration (teaching or research) as a 'midwife', on the Register of Midwives, under section 69 of the National Law
	9	Persons granted 'conditional registration' as a 'midwife' under s.30(1)(b)(iii) of the Nurses and Midwives Act 2006 (WA) to undertake duties of midwifery of limited duration	Limited registration (public interest) as a 'midwife', on the Register of Midwives, under section 68 of the National Law
Nurse practitioner	10	Persons granted 'registration' as a 'nurse practitioner' under s.28 of the Nurses and Midwives Act 2006 (WA)	General registration as a 'registered nurse', on the Register of Nurses in Division 1 Registered nurses, under section 52 of the National Law, with an endorsement as qualified to practise as a 'nurse practitioner', under section 95 of the National Law
	11	Persons granted 'registration' as a 'nurse practitioner' under s.28 of the Nurses and Midwives Act 2006 (WA) with conditions imposed under s.28(3)	General registration (with conditions) as a 'registered nurse', on the Register of Nurses in Division 1 Registered nurses, under section 52 of the National Law, with endorsement as qualified to practise as a 'nurse practitioner', under section 95 of the National Law
	12	Persons granted 'provisional registration' as a 'nurse practitioner' under s.29 of the Nurses and Midwives Act 2006 (WA) – (for a period of up to three months)	Base registration (whichever applies) as a 'registered nurse', on the Register of Nurses in Division 1 Registered nurses (pending determination of application for endorsement as nurse practitioner)
	13	Persons granted 'conditional registration' as a 'nurse practitioner' under s.30(2)(b)(ii) of the Nurses and Midwives Act 2006 (WA) to teach with respect to the functions of a nurse practitioner	Limited registration (teaching or research) as a 'registered nurse', on the Register of Nurses in the Division 1 Registered nurses, under section 69 of the National Law, with an endorsement as qualified to practise as a 'nurse practitioner', under section 95 of the National Law
	14	Persons granted 'conditional registration' as a 'nurse practitioner' under s.30(1)(b)(iii) of the Nurses and Midwives Act 2006 (WA) to undertake functions of a nurse practitioner of limited duration	Limited registration (public interest) as a 'registered nurse', on the Register of Nurses in the Division 1 Registered nurses, under section 52 of the National Law, with an endorsement as qualified to practise as a 'nurse practitioner', under section 95 of the National Law
Enrolled nurses	15	Persons granted 'registration' as an 'enrolled nurse' under s.27 of the Nurses and Midwives Act 2006 (WA)	General registration as an 'enrolled nurse', on the Register of Nurses, in Division 2 Enrolled nurses, under section 52 of the National Law
	16	Persons granted 'provisional registration' as an 'enrolled nurse' under s.29 of the Nurses and Midwives Act 2006 (WA) (for up to three months pending evidence)	Limited registration (public interest) as a 'enrolled nurse', on the Register of Nurses in the Division 2 Enrolled nurses, under section 68 of the National Law

Type of practitioner	Item No	Type of registration under State/Territory law (transition from)	Type of registration under National Law (transition to)
	17	Persons granted 'conditional registration' as an 'enrolled nurse' under s.30(1)(b)(ii) of the Nurses and Midwives Act 2006 (WA) to teach nursing in a clinical setting	Limited registration (teaching or research) as an 'enrolled nurse', on the Register of Nurses in Division 2 Enrolled nurses, under section 69 of the National Law
	18	Persons granted 'conditional registration' as an 'enrolled nurse' under s.30(1)(b)(iii) of the Nurses and Midwives Act 2006 (WA) to undertake nursing duties of limited duration	Limited registration (public interest) as an 'enrolled nurse', on the Register of Nurses in Division 2 Enrolled nurses, under section 68 of the National Law