Application for general registration
For internationally qualified nurses and midwives who have successfully completed an NMBA-approved bridging program
Profession: Nursing and Midwifery

This form is for internationally qualified nurses and midwives who have previously applied for general registration with the Nursing and Midwifery Board of Australia (NMBA) been referred by the NMBA to complete an NMBA-approved bridging program (bridging program), and successfully completed the bridging program.

Information on bridging programs can be found at www.nursingmidwiferyboard.gov.au/Registration-and-Endorsement/International/Application-outcomes.

You must complete this application yourself. It may not be completed by someone else on your behalf.

It is important that you refer to the NMBA's registration standards, codes and guidelines before completing this application. These documents can be found at www.nursingmidwiferyboard.gov.au.

If you are an internationally qualified nurse or midwife and have not successfully completed a bridging program, you should apply for registration using the form AGOS-40, which can be found at www.nursingmidwiferyboard.gov.au/Registration-and-Endorsement/Forms.

This application will not be considered unless it is complete and all supporting documentation has been provided. Supporting documentation must be certified in accordance with the Australian Health Practitioner Regulation Agency (AHPRA) guidelines. For more information, see Certifying documents in the Information and definitions section of this form.

Privacy and confidentiality
The Board and AHPRA are committed to protecting your personal information in accordance with the Privacy Act 1988 (Cth). The ways the Board and AHPRA may collect, use and disclose your information are set out in the collection statement relevant to this application, available at www.ahpra.gov.au/privacy.

By signing this form, you confirm that you have read the collection statement. AHPRA's privacy policy explains how you may access and seek correction of your personal information held by AHPRA and the Board, how to complain to AHPRA about a breach of your privacy and how your complaint will be dealt with. This policy can be accessed at www.ahpra.gov.au/privacy.

SECTION E: Qualification for the profession(s)

The information items in this section marked * will appear on the public register of practitioners. For more information, see Information on the public register in the Information and definitions section of this form.

In accordance with section 52 of the National Law, to be eligible for general registration you must be qualified for general registration in the health profession. Section 53 of the National Law states that to be qualified you must hold either:

(a) an approved qualification for the health profession,

(b) a qualification that the NMBA considers to be substantially equivalent, or based on similar competencies to an approved qualification,

(c) a qualification, not referred to in (a) or (b), relevant to the health profession and have successfully completed an examination or other assessment required by the NMBA for the purpose of general registration in the health profession, or

(d) a qualification, not referred to in (a) or (b), that under the National Law, or a corresponding prior Act, qualified you for general registration in the health profession and you were previously registered on the basis of holding that qualification.

The NMBA’s website contains information on approved qualifications accepted under point (a). More information is available at www.nursingmidwiferyboard.gov.au/Accreditation/Approved-Programs-of-Study

10. Have you recently completed a bridging program and are applying for registration based on your successful completion of this course?

- YES
- NO

STOP You are not eligible to use this application form. To apply for registration as an Australian qualified nurse or midwife, please complete application form AGEN-40, available at www.nursingmidwiferyboard.gov.au/Registration-and-Endorsement-Forms

To apply for registration as an internationally qualified nurse or midwife, please complete application form AGOS-40, available at www.nursingmidwiferyboard.gov.au/Registration-and-Endorsement-Forms
11. What are the details of the bridging program you successfully completed?

For more information, see Certifying documents in the Information and definitions section of this form.

You must attach a certified copy of the bridging program course certificate. Following assessment of your application, you may be requested to provide further information.

SECTION F: Registration history

12. What is your health practitioner registration history?

If you have been registered outside of Australia, the NMBA requires a Certificate of Good Standing (COGS) or Certificate of Registration Status (CORS) from every jurisdiction outside of Australia in which you are currently, or have previously been, registered as a health practitioner during the past five years.

You must submit a new CORS or COGS with your application, as any certificates previously submitted will no longer be valid.

Certificates must be dated within three months of your application being received by AHPRA.

Most recent registration

<table>
<thead>
<tr>

Attach a separate sheet if all your registration history does not fit in the space provided.

SECTION G: Work history

13. What is your full practice history?

It is important that you refer to Curriculum vitae in the Information and definitions section of this form for mandatory requirements of the CV. Your curriculum vitae will further inform the NMBA in relation to your recency of practice and registration history. For more information on your Statement of Service, see Statement of Service in the Information and definitions section.

If your work history has changed since you initially applied for registration, you must attach to your application:

- a Statement of Service from all of your employers from the past five years, and
- a signed and dated curriculum vitae that describes your full practice history and any training undertaken.
SECTION H: Suitability statements

Information required by the NMBA to assess your suitability for registration is detailed in the following questions. It is recommended that you provide as much information as possible to enable the NMBA to reach a timely and informed decision.

Please note that registration is dependent on suitability as defined in the National Law, and the requirements set out in the NMBA’s registration standards. Refer to www.nursingmidwiferyboard.gov.au/Registration-Standards for further information.

14. Do you have any criminal history in Australia?

It is important that you have a clear understanding of the definition of criminal history. For more information, see ‘Criminal history’ in the Information and definitions section of this form.

All applicants must demonstrate English language competency via one of the following pathways. The full requirements for each pathway are detailed in the NMBA English language skills registration standard at www.nursingmidwiferyboard.gov.au/Registration-Standards/English-language-skills.

Help on how to provide the evidence requirements for each pathway is detailed in the evidence requirements guide available at www.ahpra.gov.au/EnglishLanguageSkills. Recognised country means one of the following countries:

- Australia
- New Zealand
- Republic of Ireland
- South Africa
- United Kingdom
- United States of America.

Primary language pathway
English is your primary language and:
- you have attended and satisfactorily completed at least six years of primary and secondary education taught and assessed solely in English, in a recognised country including at least two years between ages 7–12, and
- your qualification which you are relying on to support your eligibility for registration under the National Law was taught and assessed solely in English in a recognised country.

Extended education pathway (registered nurses and midwives)
You must provide evidence that you have successfully completed at least five (5) years (full-time equivalent) continuous education taught and assessed solely in English, in a recognised country, which includes tertiary qualifications in the relevant professional discipline which you are relying on to support your eligibility for registration under the National Law.

Extended education pathway (enrolled nurses)
You must provide evidence that you have successfully completed at least five (5) years (full-time equivalent) continuous education taught and assessed solely in English, in a recognised country, which includes vocational qualifications in the relevant professional discipline which you are relying on to support your eligibility for registration under the National Law.

English language test pathway
You have achieved the required minimum scores in one of the approved English language tests and meet the requirements for test results specified in the NMBA's English language skills registration standard.

If you are an applicant who enrolled in an NMBA-approved program of study before 1 March 2019, and you have completed your program and are applying for initial registration between 1 March 2019 and 1 March 2020, you can demonstrate English language competency via one of the above pathways or you may be eligible to apply under the extended education pathway (transitional arrangement).

To be eligible you must meet the requirements as detailed in the policy for the transitional arrangements for the NMBA English language skills registration standard available at www.nursingmidwiferyboard.gov.au/Registration-Standards/English-language-skills.

17. Which one of the English language competency pathways do you meet?

AHPRA may verify the information you provide below. For more information, see English language skills in the Information and definitions section of this form. If a qualification that was relied on for registration is not an approved program of study, you must provide confirmation that the course was taught and assessed solely in English. A list of approved programs of study is available at www.ahpra.gov.au/Education/Approved-Programs-of-Study.

Primary language pathway (this is a declaration that English is your primary language)
Provide details of your primary, secondary, vocational and/or tertiary education in the table below, then go to question 21

Extended education pathway (registered nurse and/or midwife)
You must provide details of your secondary, vocational and/or tertiary education (which includes your tertiary qualifications in the relevant professional discipline) in the table below, then go to question 21

Extended education pathway (enrolled nurse)
You must provide details of your secondary, vocational and/or tertiary education (which includes your vocational qualifications in the relevant professional discipline) in the table below, then go to question 21

English language test pathway
You do not need to complete the table below. Go to question 18

Extended education (transitional arrangement)
You must provide details of secondary, vocational and/or tertiary education (including two years in a pre-registration tertiary program for registered nurses and/or midwives, OR one year in a pre-registration vocational program for enrolled nurses) in the table below, then go to question 21

Complete the following table of education undertaken in chronological order (earliest to most recent):

You must attach a certified copy of your transcript(s) confirming that each course you listed above was taught and assessed solely in English.

All applicants
- If a qualification specified above was relied on for registration and is not an approved program of study, you must provide a certified copy of your academic transcript confirming that the course was taught and assessed solely in English. A list of approved programs of study is available at www.ahpra.gov.au/Education/Approved-Programs-of-Study
- If the transcript does not confirm that the course was taught and assessed solely in English, you must arrange for a letter in the required form to be provided directly to AHPRA by the education provider confirming that the course was taught and assessed solely in English.
- Please attach a separate sheet with any additional details that do not fit in the space provided above.

18. Were your results from the English language tests obtained in one or two sittings?

In certain circumstances, you can use English language test results from a maximum of two test sittings in a six month period. For more information, refer to the NMBA’s English language skills registration standard.

One sitting
Provide date of test below, then go to the next question and complete details for one sitting

Two sittings
Provide dates below, then go to the next question and complete details for both sittings

Sitting one

Sitting two

19. Which of these English language tests have you successfully completed?

Provide reference number(s) for the test(s) you are relying on and attach a copy of your test results.

- International English Language Test System (IELTS) Academic module
  - Test report form number – sitting one:
  - Test report form number – sitting two (if applicable):
  - The NMBA requires the IELTS (academic module) with a minimum overall score of 7 and a minimum score of 7 in each of the four components (listening, reading, writing and speaking).

- Occupational English Test (OET)
  - Candidate number – sitting one:
  - Candidate number – sitting two (if applicable):
  - The NMBA requires the OET with a minimum score of B or 350 in each of the four components (listening, reading, writing and speaking).

- Pearson Test of English Academic (PTE Academic)
  - Registration ID – sitting one:
  - Registration ID – sitting two (if applicable):
  - The NMBA requires the PTE Academic with a minimum overall score of 65 and a minimum score of 65 in each of the four communicative skills (listening, reading, writing and speaking).

- Test of English as a Foreign Language internet-based test (TOEFL iBT)
  - Registration number – sitting one:
  - Registration number – sitting two (if applicable):
  - The NMBA requires the TOEFL iBT with a minimum total score of 94 and the minimum scores of 24 for listening, 24 for reading, 27 for writing, and 23 for speaking.

If your English language test(s) were completed within the past two years, you must provide a copy of your test results, including the reference number(s), so that AHPRA can verify your results.
If your English language test(s) were not completed within the past two years, you must provide a certified copy of your results.
20. Were your results from the above-mentioned English language tests obtained in the past two years?

YES □ NO □

In order for your results to be accepted, within 12 months of completing your test(s) you must have commenced:

• continuous employment as a registered health practitioner in a recognised country where English was the primary language of practice, and/or

• continuous enrolment in an approved program of study.

You must lodge this application within 12 months of completing the employment and/or program of study.

You must attach a certified copy of your English language test results, and:

• your CV and a letter from employer(s) or a professional referee in the required form confirming continuous employment as a registered health practitioner in a recognised country (if you are relying on continuous employment over two years in duration, only two years is required), and/or

• an academic transcript evidencing that you were enrolled continuously in an NMBA-approved program of study that commenced within 12 months of sitting the English language test, and that you completed your study no longer than 12 months before lodging your application.

21. Do you commit to having appropriate professional indemnity insurance (PII) arrangements in place for all practice undertaken during the registration period?

For more information, see Professional indemnity insurance in the Information and definitions section of this form.

YES □ NO □

You must not practise the profession unless you are covered by appropriate PII arrangements in accordance with the requirements of the NMBA.

SECTION I: Third party authorisation

If you wish to authorise someone else (a third party) to act on your behalf please complete form AGAF-40. This can be found at www.nursingmidwiferyboard.gov.au/Registration-and-Endorsement/Forms

Please note that authorisation for a third party to act on your behalf only remains valid until a decision is made on your application for registration. Under the Privacy Act 1988 (Cth), AHPRA is generally not permitted to disclose personal information about an applicant to a third party.
Obligations of registered health practitioners

The National Law pt 7 div 11 sub-div 3 establishes the legislative obligations of registered health practitioners. A contravention of these obligations, as detailed at points 1, 2, 4, 5, 6 or 8 below does not constitute an offence but may constitute behaviour for which health, conduct or performance action may be taken by the Board. Registered health practitioners are also obligated to meet the requirements of their Board as established in registration standards, codes and guidelines.

Continuing professional development

1. A registered health practitioner must undertake the continuing professional development required by an approved registration standard for the health profession in which the practitioner is registered.

Professional indemnity insurance arrangements

2. A registered health practitioner must not practise the health profession in which the practitioner is registered unless appropriate professional indemnity insurance arrangements are in force in relation to the practitioner’s practice of the profession.

3. A National Board may, at any time by written notice, require a registered health practitioner registered by the Board to give the Board evidence of the appropriate professional indemnity insurance arrangements that are in force in relation to the practitioner’s practice of the profession.

4. A registered health practitioner must not, without reasonable excuse, fail to comply with a written notice given to the practitioner under point 3 above.

Notice of certain events

5. A registered health practitioner must, within 7 days after becoming aware that a relevant event has occurred in relation to the practitioner, give the National Board that registered the practitioner written notice of the event. Relevant event means—

   a) the practitioner is charged, whether in a participating jurisdiction or elsewhere, with an offence punishable by 12 months imprisonment or more; or

   b) the practitioner is convicted of or the subject of a finding of guilt for an offence, whether in a participating jurisdiction or elsewhere, punishable by imprisonment; or

   c) appropriate professional indemnity insurance arrangements are no longer in place in relation to the practitioner’s practice of the profession; or

   d) the practitioner’s right to practise at a hospital or another facility at which health services are provided is withdrawn or restricted because of the practitioner’s conduct, professional performance or health; or

   e) the practitioner’s billing privileges are withdrawn or restricted under the Human Services (Medicare) Act 1973 (Cth) because of the practitioner’s conduct, professional performance or health; or

   f) the practitioner’s authority under a law of a State or Territory to administer, obtain, possess, prescribe, sell, supply or use a scheduled medicine or class of scheduled medicines is cancelled or restricted; or

   g) a complaint is made about the practitioner to the following entities—

      i) the chief executive officer under the Human Services (Medicare) Act 1973 (Cth);

      ii) an entity performing functions under the Health Insurance Act 1973 (Cth);

      iii) the Secretary within the meaning of the National Health Act 1953 (Cth);

      iv) the Secretary to the Department in which the Migration Act 1950 (Cth) is administered;

      v) another Commonwealth, State or Territory entity having functions relating to professional services provided by health practitioners or the regulation of health practitioners.

   h) the practitioner’s registration under the law of another country that provides for the registration of health practitioners is suspended or cancelled or made subject to a condition or another restriction.

Change in principal place of practice, address or name

6. A registered health practitioner must, within 30 days of any of the following changes happening, give the National Board that registered the practitioner written notice of the change and any evidence providing proof of the change required by the Board—

   a) a change in the practitioner’s principal place of practice;

   b) a change in the address provided by the registered health practitioner as the address the Board should use in corresponding with the practitioner; or

   c) a change in the practitioner’s name.

Employer’s details

7. A National Board may, at any time by written notice given to a health practitioner registered by the Board, ask the practitioner to give the Board the following information—

   a) information about whether the practitioner is employed by another entity; or

   b) if the practitioner is employed by another entity—

      i) the name of the practitioner’s employer; and

      ii) the address and other contact details of the practitioner’s employer.

8. The registered health practitioner must not, without reasonable excuse, fail to comply with the notice.

Consent to nationally coordinated criminal history check

I authorise AHPRA and the NMBA to carry out a nationally coordinated criminal history check for the purpose of assessing this application.

I acknowledge that:

• a complete criminal history, including resolved and unresolved charges, spent convictions, and findings of guilt for which no conviction was recorded, will be released to AHPRA and the NMBA.

• my personal information will be extracted from this form and provided to the Australian Criminal Intelligence Commission (ACIC) and Australian police agencies for the purpose of conducting a nationally coordinated criminal history check, including all names under which I am or have been known

• my personal information may be used by police for general law enforcement purposes, including those purposes set out in the Australian Crime Commission Act 2002 (Cth).

• my identity information provided with this application will be enrolled with AHPRA to allow for any subsequent criminal history checks during my period of registration.

• if and when this application for registration is granted, AHPRA may check my criminal history at any time during my period of registration as required by the NMBA for the purpose of assessing my suitability to hold health practitioner registration; or in response to a Notice of Certain Events; or an application for Removal of Reprimand from the National Register.

• I may dispute the result of the nationally coordinated criminal history check by contacting AHPRA in the first instance.

Consent

If I provide the NMBA details of an English language test I have completed, I authorise the NMBA to use the information I provide to verify those results with the test provider.

I understand the test provider may be overseas.

I consent to the NMBA and AHPRA making enquiries of, and exchanging information with, the authorities of any Australian state or territory, or other country, regarding my practice as a health practitioner or otherwise regarding matters relevant to this application.

I acknowledge that:

• the NMBA may validate documents provided in support of this application as evidence of my identity

• failure to complete all relevant sections of this application and to enclose all supporting documentation may result in this application not being accepted.

• notices required under the National Law and other correspondence relating to my application and registration (if granted) will be sent electronically to me via my nominated email address

• AHPRA uses overseas cloud service providers to hold, process and maintain personal information where this is reasonably necessary to enable AHPRA to perform its functions under the National Law. These providers include Salesforce, whose operations are located in Japan and the United States of America.

I undertake to comply with all relevant legislation and NMBA registration standards, codes and guidelines.

I understand that personal information that I provide may be given to a third party for regulatory purposes, as authorised or required by the National Law.

I confirm that I have:

• met the English language skills pathway requirements indicated on this form, and

• read the privacy and confidentiality statement for this form.

I declare that:

• the above statements, and the documents provided in support of this application, are true and correct, and

• I am the person named in this application and in the documents provided.

I make this declaration in the knowledge that a false statement is grounds for the NMBA to refuse registration.

ENGLISH LANGUAGE SKILLS
To be eligible for registration you must be able to provide evidence that meets the NMBA’s English language skills registration standard, which can be found at www.nursingmidwiferyboard.gov.au/Registration-Standards

FULL-TIME EQUIVALENT
Full-time equivalent represents average hours over a specific period which is equal to that of a full-time employee or student and is defined as 37.5 hours per week.

INFORMATION ON THE PUBLIC REGISTER
Information in this form marked with an asterisk (*) indicates the information that will be displayed on the online public register of practitioners.

IMPAIRMENT
Impairment means a physical or mental impairment, disability, condition, or disorder (including substance abuse or dependence) that detrimentally affects or is likely to detrimentally affect your capacity to practise the profession. The National Law requires you to declare any such impairments at the time of initial registration and renewal, including details of the impairment and how it is managed.

PRACTICE
Practice means any role, whether remunerated or not, in which you use your skills and knowledge as a health practitioner in your profession. Practice is not restricted to the provision of direct clinical care. It also includes using professional knowledge in a direct non-clinical relationship with clients, working in management, administration, education, research, advisory, regulatory or policy development roles and any other roles that impact on the safe and effective delivery of services in the profession and/or use of their professional skills.

PROFESSIONAL INDEMNITY INSURANCE (PII)
You must not practise the profession unless you are covered by appropriate PII arrangements in accordance with the requirements of the NMBA. You may be covered by your own private cover, your Australian employer’s cover or another third party such as insurance gained through membership of a professional or industrial organisation. You are accountable for ensuring that you have PII cover in place and for understanding the nature of that cover.

For more information, view the registration standard online at www.nursingmidwiferyboard.gov.au/Registration-Standards

RECENCY OF PRACTICE
Recency of practice means that a health practitioner has maintained an adequate connection with, and recent practice in the profession since qualifying for, or obtaining registration. The NMBA’s recency of practice requirements also apply to an endorsement for scheduled medicines or as a nurse practitioner. You are not required to provide your Australian current registration report, AHPRA will obtain this check on your behalf. You may be required to provide additional current practice history reports. For more information, view the registration standard online at www.nursingmidwiferyboard.gov.au/Registration-Standards

STATEMENT OF SERVICE
The Statement of Service is required to:

- be on the employer’s letterhead
- provide dates of employment
- describe the role in which you were employed, and whether if was full-time/part-time hours, and
- be signed by a manager (e.g. director of nursing, unit manager or HR manager).

For more information, view the registration and endorsement policy at www.nursingmidwiferyboard.gov.au/Registration-Standards/Endorsement/Policy

CURRICULUM VITAE
Your curriculum vitae must:

- detail any gaps in your practice history of more than three months from the date you obtained your registration
- be in chronological order
- be signed and dated with a statement ‘This curriculum vitae is true and correct as at (insert date)’, and
- be the original signed curriculum vitae. It must also contain all the elements defined in AHPRA’s standard format for curriculum vitae which can be found at www.ahpra.gov.au/cv
